E. H. RILEY, M.L.A., ADDRESSES ELECTORS

Count Court House For Gleichen

Account of Stewardship

Although the time allowed for advertising E. H. Riley's meeting was short the Foresters Hall was well filled with a most attentive audience Thursday evening and many were obliged to stand throughout.

President H. Scott occupied the chair and Messrs. John Clark and T. H. Beach positions on the platform with him. In calling the meeting to order the chairman very briefly stated the objects of the gathering and then called upon Mr. Clark for a report of the convention.

Mr. Clark did not claim to be an orator and feeling his inability to adequately convey anything like a fair conception of the convention he sincerely wished all present could have been there themselves and have heard the excellent speeches. He said Mr. Riley secured the nomination by acclamation and no other name was even mentioned. His nomination was received with great enthusiasm. Mr. Clark considered it a pleasure to work for the Rutherford government and the local member, who had done such good solid work for Gleichen. He thought the Government a clean progressive government and was sure Gleichen had a candidate to work for that all might be glad to support.

The chairman then offered an opportunity for any opposition speakers to address the audience but as none came forward he called Mr. Riley.

Mr. Riley rose amid wild cheering and cried out by saying it afforded him great pleasure to open his campaign in Gleichen as it was here he made the first campaign speech of his life, two and a half years ago. He thanked the organization, and Mr. Clark and the good people of Gleichen for the support they had given him in helping to better the constituency, and acknowledged that the various organizations in Gleichen had rendered him good assistance in many matters. The secretaries of the Board of Trade, the Agricultural Society and the town council had all materially helped him in solutions of many questions that he had brought to the government's attention and he wished to thank these organizations and to urge upon the members the importance of keeping them alive for all time to come.

He expressed the pleasure it gave him in knowing that the electors approved of his work in again selecting him as their candidate. His motto had always been, farmers first, last and always, and if elected he would do everything for the advancement of his constituency.

To the president and the Gleichen Liberal Constituency Association he said he could hardly express the sense of pleasure he felt, after three sessions of hard work to be unanimously selected again as their standard-bearer and promised to do his utmost to prove worthy of the great honor bestowed upon him.

Mr. Riley then gave an account of his stewardship since his election, when he came practically from the handles of the plough and took his seat in the legislature, and believed he had fulfilled his promise to work entirely for the settlers, farmers and farmers, remunerating the many items he had secured for the improvement of roads, bridges etc., the greatest of which was the new Bow river bridge south of Gleichen. In connection with this bridge he said it had cost a large sum of money, yet he gave the government no rest until he secured a grant for it and he was pleased to learn it had already been of good service. He regretted that the south approach to this bridge had not been finished last year, but the appropriation had run out and the grading could not be done. However, he was pleased to state he had secured and appropriation for this and the work would be done as early in the spring as it was possible.

He had also the past session secured an appropriation for the road from Gleichen to Red Deer river to be built the coming spring.

He had the promise of the extension of the government telephone system to Gleichen and if the weather remained fair work on it might be underway before election day.

He had also just received word that his efforts had been successful and the government had included with other places a sum of money sufficient to purchase a site for a court house which is to be built in Gleichen. (Prolonged cheers.)

He had brought forward in the house and was successful in having the coyote bounty restored.

Although the government found hall insurance was not profitable he had a measure put through whereby the insurance was doubled per acre. Now $10 would insure a crop of 100 acres and in case of hail the farmer would get $300 cash.

He secured a grant to the Gleichen District Agricultural Association for last year of dollar for dollar per member and 60 per cent of the prize.

In dealing with the Calgary and Kneer Hill railway Mr. Riley said he had introduced in the house the bill for the charter three sessions ago, but as the charter holders had failed to comply with the provisions he opposed an extension last session. He did this as he believed the holders only wanted it for the guarantee of bonds that would go with it so they could sell it to some company, but the Premier informed him that the guarantee of bonds would not be transferable, and he withdrew his opposition to the extension. However, he was glad to say another company also had a charter and would build a line this year that will cover the entire length of the Gleichen constituency and that over the same route proposed by the Calgary and Kneer Hill road.

He told how the platform of the Rutherford government had been fully carried out. Members of the opposition offered no severe criticism of the administration. He dealt with the redistribution bill, and pointed out the fact that not one of the committee could make objection and all signed the map. Mr. Thebert and Mr. Robertson were on the committee.

He dealt with the opposition literature, which condemns the amount of salary paid to Hon. W. H. Cushing. He pointed out that in business that gentleman would command a much higher salary.

Two and a half million dollars had been spent on roads and bridges in the province during the three and a half (Continued on Page 4.)

The Sunny Belt Elevator Co. of Lethbridge have staked out a site west of the Alberta Pacific Elevator and will build a elevator in Gleichen this summer.

A meeting of the Gleichen and District Conservative Association will be held Friday evening, March 12th, in the Cosgrave Block. All good Conservatives are invited. Emil Griesbach, secretary.

Miss C. McArthur was operated upon at the Calgary Hospital last Thursday for appendicitis, and her many friends will be pleased to learn she is recovering rapidly, according to Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie who remained with her until Sunday.

MYSTERIOUS FIRE SUGGESTS INCENDIARY

E. C. Henroth's Mill and Warehouse Burned to the Ground

H. Mills was late Saturday night finishing his correspondence and going out to post his letters about 1 a.m. Sunday morning, he noticed E. C. Henroth's warehouse on fire and turned in an alarm. Here was where our fire alarm proved inadequate as only two firemen turned out and about 40 citizens.

It took some little time to get onto the combination for operating the chemical engines, and a mistake was made in operating both at the same time as otherwise the building might have been saved, had one been kept in operation continuously. However all worked hard, loading the engines nine times, and by great efforts saved everything moveable in the building, including the grain chipping machine and gasoline engine.

The fire was first discovered in the attic at the north end of the building where there were four bales of hay and a ladder was found placed up to the attic door. As the staves, chimney and engine were in the other end of the building and no fire had been in the staves when J. Ostrander left work at 6 o'clock Saturday evening, there can be no doubt but that the fire was started by some one, but for what reason remains a mystery. It is stated that Messrs. Poe and Fennell, who on their way home, saw a couple of men at the warehouse about 11:30 that night, but at present it is not stated whether they recognized them or not. To say the least it looks like the work of incendiaries and every effort will be made to discover the perpetrators.

The building and contents were insured for $2000, and the loss to Mr. Henroth cannot yet be estimated, but it is also a loss to Gleichen as he has materially advanced the price of grain at times and in many ways assisted the farmers.

Mr. Henroth returned from Calgary on No. 96, just after the fire occurred.

Pleasant Ridge News

The dance last week was, as in the case of one or two others this winter, characterized by a certain amount of rowdiness, to use the word in a limited sense. It is deplorable that a certain element in the community cannot attend one of these functions without being "half seas over" before the night is half done, reaching a maudlin condition towards the close. Why it should be thought eminently fitting and proper for a man to bring a "bottle" with him to share with others or his elk, pastes the bounds of comprehension. Certainly no self-respecting woman finds any pleasure in dancing with semi-intoxicated men, the mere presence of whom is revolting to her finer feelings and sensibilities. These are no longer "every day" things, they are past and gone forever. Let the fire-water dance pass with them! A man may combat himself as he pleases at home; but we should all realize that when out in a social gathering he must deport himself as becomes a gentleman, showing in his demeanor the deference due the gentler sex. It was showing a fine courtesy to refrain from similar exhibitions in the future. As the men of the community, we cannot afford to bring these occasional good things we have into ill repute, or presently there will be no dances. Who had some nukes.

Ed. Thomander and Will Jackson arrived Monday night, bringing with them a carload of effects from Wisconsin. They have located at the lower end of the valley.

GLEICHEN CANDIDATES NOMINATED

E. H. Riley by Liberals Jas. Shouldice by Conservatives

The following reports of the Gleichen conventions held in Calgary last week are culled from the Daily News:

E. H. Riley Nominated

A rousing meeting of Gleichen Liberals was held in the local Liberal association's rooms Wednesday night, Mr.
E. H. Riley, the present member, being unanimously chosen as a candidate for a seat in the legislature. No other name was placed before the convention which was most harmonious in every respect. The constituency was well represented, the delegates being men of high standing in the community.

The following officers for the year were elected:

President—Mr. H. Scott, Gleichen.
Vice President—Mr. A. J. McArthur, Crescent Heights.

Secretary—Mr. J. M. Lowndes, Riverside.

Executive committee—Messrs. Lloyd, Simpson, Moorhouse, J. Hunter, W.
Shelley, J. Paterson, J. Nigro, S. Skinn, H. Whiting, L. McKinnon, M. Golden,
A. Knott and F. Renand.

After the election of officers the nomination was proceeded with, Mr. Riley being proposed by Capt. Cooper and Mr.
J. Clark, who delivered addresses favoring his candidacy. Their remarks in reference to Mr. Riley were most eulogistic and found favor with their auditors. It was decided without hesitation to make the nomination unanimous.

Mr. Riley, in acceptance of the nomination, thanked the delegates and said that he would do his best to justify the confidence the electors of Gleichen were reposing in him. He referred briefly to his record during the past three sessions of the legislature, speaking in complimentary terms of the Rutherford administration, characterizing it as one of the best and most progressive in the Dominion. The government had done splendid work for the province and deserved the undivided support of the electors. The work of the government was before the people and was meritorious enough to entitle a return to power of the Liberal party. Mr. Riley concluded with a description of what had been done by Premier Rutherford his colleagues in the way of advancing the interests of Alberta.

Hon. C. W. Cross, attorney-general, followed Mr. Riley and expressed pleasure because of the nomination of the candidate selected, as he considered Mr. Riley to be one of the most capable men in the province. Mr. Riley not only had ability but he also had experience and his services had been and would be of great value to not only his constituency but to Alberta at large.

Another excellent speech was made by Mr. Golden of Langdon, who said that while he was a Conservative he was going to support the Rutherford administration.

James Shouldice Nominated

Gleichen Conservatives met in convention in the local Conservative rooms on Friday night and nominated as their candidate to oppose Mr. E. H.
Riley, Mr. James Shouldice, a prominent farmer who lives near Hillcrest, the names Messrs. Tweedie and W. L.
Walsh, K. C., were placed before the convention but neither would accept the nomination. Mr. Walsh said that he had practically given up any idea of being a parliamentary man. In his opinion, Gleichen should be represented by a farmer and he considered that the best thing the Conservatives could do was to elect Mr. Shouldice. According to Mr. Shouldice's nomination was made unanimous.

Mr. Shouldice in accepting the nomination said that he thought either Mr.
Tweedie or Mr. Walsh would make a better candidate, but he would bow to the wishes of the convention. He felt that this was his duty, as it had been stated that a Conservative candidate would not be placed in the field in Gleichen, and if this prophecy held good it would be an indication that the party was going back. Mr. Shouldice could not bring himself to be caustic at the Rutherford government's expense and confined himself to generalities, saying that at a later date he would speak at greater length and more fully outline his platform.

Mr. R. B. Bennet was in a lively mood, and repeated his declaration that the election was brought on at a notice so short that it was unfair to the province. He asserted, too, that the electors were witnessing the spectacle of machine made candidates and machine-made constituencies.

Dr. Blow and Dr. Brett spoke briefly.

The following officers were elected:

Hon. President—R. B. Bennet.

President—R. McOmell.

Vice President—E. Giesbach.

Secretary-Treasurer—J. Waddy.

Committee from the different polling stations in the riding as follows:

Hillhurst and Sunnyside—L. Lenize.

Riverside—Mr. Wiggins.

Crescent Heights—Open.

Gleichen—E. C. Henroth.

Nose Creek—Jeo Lewis.

Chester—S. Chan.

Langdon—J. Burrows.

Sheppard—W. Shaw.

Strathmore—W. Brown.

Upper Hillhurst—W. Watt.

Delaware—G. Mackleroy.

Lile—P. McPhee.

Bassano—P. McLean.

Dorothy—B. Bunney.

Crowfoot—B. Taylor.

Brooks—J. Wyatt.

"Are you the defendant in this case?"
asked the judge as he pointed at a negro.
Quick as a flash Joe was on his feet, and, not understanding legal terms, he exclaimed politely: "No, sah; no, sah; I ain't de 'defant; I am de 'defant o' de law." And he pointed to his lawyer.
There was a general laugh about the room, in which the queer old judge joined heartily. The darkey felt abashed.
He was visibly embarrassed, and, thinking to correct his mistake, if mistake it were, said again, pointing at his lawyer:
"Yes, sah; he's de 'defant," and then pointing to himself, he said, "I's de gentleman what stole de chickens."

The Rev. W. G. W. Fortune, preaching in Calgary declared that there would be no curling in heaven. The other place not being feasible on account of climatic conditions. The brothers of the stone can hardly be blamed for making the most of present opportunities.

Luck means rising at 6 o'clock in the morning, living on a dollar a day if you earn two, minding your own business and not meddling with other people's.
Luck means appointments you have never failed to keep, trains you have never failed to catch. Luck means trusting in God and your own resources.
—Max O'Rell.

As The Call is the only newspaper in Gleichen constituency, it may be well to keep out of the press's political campaign, and, therefore, we will only give fair reports of the meetings according to the space at our disposal. This The Call will follow out so long as the candidates and their admirers conduct a fair and clean campaign in the interests of the electors, but if either indulge in personalities and abuse then The Call may choose to take another course. One thing we will promise and that is to encourage and to assist in every possible way the electors choice during his term of office so long as he tries to fill his election promises. And it is our belief a newspaper can do more real lasting good by reporting and commenting on the work of a member between election-than it can do during a campaign.

TOWN AND DISTRICT

The Council meets tonight.
The gophers are out—spring.
A court house will look good in Gleichen.

F. H. Blackburn is again prepared to do boot and shoe repairing.
Come in to see the trophy that made Gleichen famous. The Call has it.

Gleichen is to have a real live boxing contest shortly with Alf. Daw as the star actor.

The Bishop of Calgary will conduct services in St. Andrew's Church Sunday morning.

Gleichen's canned orchestra serenaded, a couple of newly made benedicts Monday night.

Mrs. R. H. Hogg arrived from Winnipeg on Monday to join her husband and will reside here in future.

Mr. Hollup returned Friday from Calgary with his bride and is receiving the congratulations of his many friends.

The Oddfellows formed a lodge in Gleichen last night, an initiating team coming down from Calgary for that purpose.

James Shandice, the Conservative candidate, is to address the electors in the Foresters' hall Saturday night, when a rousing meeting is expected.

Mr. and Mrs. John Finnigan of Red Deer river have been in town since Sunday renewing acquaintances. It is just about a year since Mrs. Finnigan was in town last and she is much pleased with the growth of the town in that time.

The Public School entertainment to be given tomorrow evening—Friday—in the Foresters' hall should prove a success as Miss Snyder is said to be an eloquent and impersonator of ability, and also for the reason that the proceeds go towards the public school library.

E. H. Riley's Address

Years, and the expenditure was never challenged by the opposition. $123,000 were in the estimates for roads and bridges for 1909.

He dealt with the department of education. One thousand schools were now in Alberta, 153 built in 1907.
400 in 1908, and there will be built at the rate of one per day during 1909.
Thirty-five thousand school children attended the schools daily, in charge of 1100 teachers.

In closing, Mr. Riley stated that he will never attempt to gain a vote by tearing to pieces the personal character of any man.

Mr. J. T. Johnstone, a prominent Conservative, came on the platform and addressed the meeting. He said:

"Mr. Riley is a Liberal. I am a Conservative. But, realizing the services of Mr. Riley to the Gleichen district, I feel that I voice the feeling of many Conservatives that Mr. Riley should not be put to the expense of a campaign unless we can bring up a man better fitted for the position than he has proved himself to be, and that he should receive the election by acclamation. Mr. Riley has been our member for some time, and he has done our work faithfully regarding Liberals and Conservatives, and I think we ought to hold with him on the strength of this. I do not see where we can get a better man to fill this situation, and by electing him by acclamation, therefore, free him from the expense of an election, which will be a big expense."

Mr. Riley in rising to reply to Mr.
Johnstone's remarks, stated that he never knew a man's politics when it came to dealing with any measure that meant the betterment of the constituency. Mr. Riley made an excellent speech. The meeting closed with three cheers for Mr. Riley and the King. After the meeting Mr. Riley was banqueted in the People's Cafe.

Mr. and Mrs. Cory entertained over twenty of T. P. Fisher's gentleman friends at a birthday party Friday evening given in his honor.

The Call will enter upon its third birthday two weeks hence and this is just a gentle reminder that the publisher would like once more to look upon some of our readers collateral.

For the convenience of their clients in and surrounding Gleichen, Messrs Short, Ross & Selwood, barristers, of Calgary, have opened a branch of their law office at Gleichen, where one member of their firm can be consulted on Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning of each week.

More New Goods Arrive

Here we are again and we have something brand new to offer the Ladies this week.

We have just received a shipment of dry goods which includes an of Twenty-five dress lengths the equal of which were never before seen in Gleichen. There are no two of f these lengths the same and the prices are right.

This shipment also includes a full line Ladies fancy whitewear, belts, collars, waists, an assortment of all-over aces, muslins, prints, silk and lace gloves, taffeta and hina silks, and ladies parasols. We are trying to give entire satisfaction in our Dry Goods Department and ask that the ladies come in and inspect our goods whether they wish to purchase or not as all goods are cheerfully shown.

This year's fashions require the new styles of corsets and none of the new dresses will give satisfaction unless worn over our new style B. & C. Corsets. We have just received a shipment of these and are able to supply them in all sizes.

From our Grocery Department we offer this week while they last 25 pound boxes of fancy California Prunes at $2 and 50 pound boxes at 3.90.
